What is better than challenging yourself while taking in the fresh Lake Superior breeze?

Our non-motorized trail systems will ensure you get your hiking, biking, skiing, and paddling fix—each and every time you kick back in the Keweenaw.

The Keweenaw is inundated with endless miles of ORV/ATV and snowmobile trails...and it doesn't hurt that Mother Nature never skimps on fresh powder, fall color, or summer breezes.

Find your adventure—from camping to skiing or snowshoeing, hiking the region's waterfalls or the rugged shores of Lake Superior. Find adventure at:

- Copper Harbor Trails
- Hunter's Point Trailhead
- Agate Beach
- Brockway Mountain Drive
- Eagle River Beach
- Great Sand Bay

Follow the byway to see its role in the Copper Country's expansive history!

Two national parks. Two state parks. All within your reach when you visit the Keweenaw. Whether you are interested in military history or yearning to experience peace in pristine wilderness, what you find here is raw and real.

Soak in the region's history:

- Take an adventure through history and follow the footsteps of miners at Cliff Mine, Central Mine, Delaware Mine, or Quincy Mine.
- Understand the role of the water and listen to the waves crash at Eagle Harbor Lighthouse or Fort Wilkins State Park.
- Enjoy the rich heritage of the region and follow the archives of the Calumet Historic District, the Finnish Heritage Center, the Keweenaw National Historical Park, and the Houghton County Historical Society Museum.

Reconnect with the sights and sounds of nature through rugged coastlines and dense forests.

Numerous chapters have been written that together form the natural history of the Copper Country—from major geologic events to the protection of the area's special natural resources.

From beaches to overlooks and water to wildlife, find your retreat:

- Brockway Mountain Drive
- Estivant Pines Nature Sanctuary
- Gay Lac La Belle Spur
- 26 Spur \(Sand Dune Drive\)
- Tunnel of Trees \(Copper Harbor\)
- Bird watching on nature conservancy properties

The Keweenaw presents a rugged exterior, but the way to its heart is water. The Copper Country Scenic Byway takes you along 165 miles of shoreline on the world's largest freshwater lake, Lake Superior, and 96 miles of coastline on the Keweenaw Waterway.
